

Country Style Foods

Press Release – 23 September 2007

Country Style Foods has acquired the former RHM frozen desserts business from Premier Foods.

The business, located at Flint in North Wales, manufactures branded and retailers' own-label desserts. It operates from a 50,000 sq. ft factory connected directly to its own cold-storage and warehousing facilities.

Country Style has also acquired the licence to produce Cadbury frozen cakes and desserts, a range which it intends to develop further.

Notes to editors:

Country Style Foods manufactures bakery products and desserts for leading retailers and food services. The family business, founded in 1960 by Tony and Christine Wood, operates from sites at Leeds, Grimsby, Stockton, Peterlee and now at Flint in North Wales. The business employs over 1,400 people.
